

Bio David Brett

David Brett serves as the Fellowship and Teaching Pastor at Village View Community Church in Summerfield, Florida. David graduated from Lee University with a BA in Biblical Education. He went on to earn his Master of Divinity from The School of Theology in Cleveland, Tennessee. David's background in the Catholic faith and his journey into the Protestant faith has enabled him to reach across denominational lines to share the message of God's love. With an extensive background as a residential builder, David's personal journey of faith took him from building homes to building hearts and lives for Christ.

David has been involved in full-time ministry for over thirty years. His varied ministry experience includes working as a Hospice Chaplain to provide spiritual support for grieving families. David has served churches in both Texas and Florida. He has well-established experience serving as an Associate Pastor and Senior Pastor. David has also worked as an Adjunct Professor for Warner Southern University. In his current role, David oversees the ministries of Pastoral Care, Visitor Assimilation, Addiction Recovery, Grief Share, Counseling and Community Outreach. David teaches classes and serves on the Teaching Team for Sunday mornings at Village View. David and his wife, Wanda, have three grown children. David enjoys great coffee, good books, sports and spending time with family and friends.
